Two More Linđo Folklore Ensemble Performances Left Until the Festival's Closing

Dubrovnik, 17th August 2014 – The penultimate performance of the Linđo Folklore Ensemble at this year's Dubrovnik Summer Festival will take place tomorrow, 18th August at 9.30 p.m. on the Revelin Fort Terrace.

Linđo has for decades been an unavoidable part of the Festival's programme, and this year is no exception. This multiple times awarded ensemble, listed amongst the finest European Folklore groups, will therefore be performing a sumptuous palette of folk dances and songs from all around Croatia. Linđo proudly presents international and national audiences with the cultural wealth of our region by dancing and performing in original costumes of great value. The dance programme consists of the littoral Linđo, dances of Bunjevci, Međimurje and Baranja, along with the Wheel-dance of Vrljika, amongst others.

This year's last Linđo performance will be held on the Revelin Fort Terrace on 23rd August. Tickets are available online at www.dubrovnik-festival.hr, in the Festival's Palace, in the Visia Multimedia Center, as well as in the Luža Culture and information Center, as well as at the entrance, two hours prior to the performance. Citizens and residents of the Dubrovnik-Neretva county may purchase tickets at a 30 percent discount rate in the Festival's box offices.
