A CONCERT TO REMEMBER

Tom Jones spectacular performance

Dubrovnik, July 2, 2019 – One of the greatest living music legends, singer whose world glory lasts more than half a century, Tom Jones performed on the 1st of July, in front of the Dubrovnik Cathedral. This spectacular concert was organized by the City of Dubrovnik and the Dubrovnik Summer Festival in collaboration with Star produkcija

The legendary Tom Jones opened his concert with a new hit song "Burning hell", and for almost two hours sang some of his greatest new and old hits such as "Green grass of home", "You can leave your hat on" and "If I just knew". The audience was blown away and begun dancing in the aisles during the performance of the song "Sex bomb", while the biggest applause was given to his 1969 hit song "Delilah". The megastar was in a great mood, and the audience replied by dancing and singing with him.

"This city is beautiful, and this place is unbelievable, I'm here for the first time and I'm in shock, how did they build all this?! I'm happy to be here," said Tommy Jones. By singing "Strange Things" he ended his triumphal concert and announced to the audience: "I cannot promise you to see it soon but we will see you as soon as possible."

In the course of his career, Tom Jones released 41 studio albums, 20 video albums, 5 live albums, and 16 compilations. His last three albums, Long Lost Suitcase, Spirit in the Room and Praise & Blame, were highly acclaimed by the critics, both in terms of production and performance, which only confirms that Jones rightfully bears the title of one of the most popular performers in music history.
